Subject: Spelling Bee is back with Season- 5

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Champs21.

We take pride and pleasure to share with you that, Spelling Bee, the largest education TV reality show, is back with season 5 in cooperation with Dan Cake.

The countdown to the grandest battle of grammar, intelligence, wit, panache and vocabulary starts and we would like to invite your school to participate in the showdown of the best spellers in the country. Given the fifth season of Spelling Bee is on the horizon, we require your institutional support in sharing news about this competition among your students. We hope to enlist a large number of participants from your school in the competition.

The Season-5 of Spelling Bee is expected to commence in February 2020. Therefore, students need to start practicing at the earliest. Since there was a couple of years of break, to recall the registration process, rules, competition formats and preparation etc. please log in to:
